SPRING IN THE VINES

SOUTH EAST AND TASMAN REGION

1 Iron Creek Bay Estate

394 Arthur Highway, Sorell
Fri, Sat: 11.30am—9pm, Sun: 11.30am—9pm

Discover Iron Creek Bay Estate this Spring in the Vines and experience one of Tasmania's historic vineyard estates. Enjoy our self-guided SITV Vintage Wine Tasting Set, showcasing wines from our vineyard while taking in breathtaking bay views and Tasmania's rural landscape. Join us for lunch or dinner at Orani Restaurant and meet our friendly farm animals. Ticketed stargazing experiences are also available on site. Extend your visit with a stay in our award-winning sustainable accommodation and immerse yourself in the beauty of Tasmania's East Coast. Dining bookings are recommended.

2 Southwood Wines

88 Woolleys Road, Kellevie
Sat, Sun: 11am—4.30pm

Southwood is a little piece of rustic paradise in the hills of Kellevie. There's plenty of room for kids to play with horses to pat and cows to look at, dogs are welcome, and a fun time for tasting our delicious pinots and our new rose. Close to both Bream Creek Cellar Door and Bangor Vineyard Shed. Snacks provided for adults and kids.

3 Bream Creek Vineyard

321 Marion Bay Road, Bream Creek
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10.30am—5pm

Enjoy a special side-by-side tasting of eight wines, including Riesling, Pinot Gris, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, paired with a selection of cheeses and small bites. Limited to 10 guests per tasting, with sessions held daily across the weekend. The cellar door will also be open throughout the weekend for tastings of the regular wine range. No booking or ticket is required — simply drop in and enjoy.

4 Bangor Vineyard

20 Blackman Bay Road, Dunalley
Fri, Sun: 10am—5pm, Sat: 10am—2.30pm

A busy cellar door and restaurant with stunning views over Blackman Bay, all set on a 6,200 ha 5th generation merino sheep farm and wildlife sanctuary. Open all weekend for wine tastings.

5 Cascades Bay Wines

35 Shelly Beach Road, Koonya
Fri, Sat, Sun: 12—6pm

Join us for a relaxed weekend by the water at our family-owned, single-estate waterfront vineyard in Koonya. Enjoy tastings of our medal-winning Sparkling Blanc de Noir, Sparkling Rosé, Rosé and Pinot Noir, all made from grapes grown on the property. With limited 2022 Pinot Noir remaining, this is a special opportunity to taste this award-winning vintage. Bring the family or gather your friends and enjoy lawn games, sweeping vineyard views and a relaxed coastal atmosphere. Friday offers a quieter experience and the chance to chat with vigneron Clinton, while Sunday features Tasman Woodfired Pizza from 12pm—5.30pm and live local music. BYO food is welcome Friday and Saturday.

6 Premaydena Hill

1235 Nubeena Road, Premaydena
Fri: 11am—8pm, Sat, Sun: 11am—5pm

We will be celebrating Spring in the Vines with special access to new release wines and back catalogue favourites. Enjoy a vertical wine tasting with winemakers Daniel and Ella Kelleher and hear how each season, and the unique terroir of their unirrigated vineyard, have shaped the resulting wine from each vintage. We will also be joined by Miss Franks food truck on the Friday night and will have live oyster shucking from Blue Lagoon Oysters on Saturday and Sunday.

7 Three Capes Vineyard

724 Saltwater River Road, Saltwater River
Fri, Sat, Sun: 11am—5pm

Discover Three Capes Vineyard, home to 23 Pinot Noir clones growing across 5.5 hectares of Jurassic dolerite overlooking Norfolk Bay. Explore the vineyard's fascinating convict history, with original cobbled roads running through the vines, and taste tiny quantities of handpicked Pinot Noir made using hands-on, regenerative viticulture.

Visit the historic 1914 general store cellar door, preserved in its original condition, and enjoy a game of pétanque beside the former convict-built hospital. Bring a picnic and a rug, settle in and enjoy the vineyard, wine and history of Saltwater River.

Supported by the Tasmanian Government through Events Tasmania

Tasmanian Government

Spring in the Vines is brought to you by

WINE SOUTH TASMANIA