

SPRING IN THE VINES ON THE THE VINES DERWENT

1 Germain Wines

1557 Midlands Highway, Bagdad
Sat, Sun: 10am—4pm

Not a new vineyard but new owners and a new name. We are really proud to open up to the public for the first time with our first release. We are a small boutique vineyard that is unashamedly purely pinot! Come and visit our low key and bush surrounded setting. Walk around the dam and see our ewes and lambs. Bring some food and cook it on our BBQ or enjoy our cheese platter.

2 Derwent Estate Wines

329 Lyell Highway, Granton
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Visit the historic Cellar Door at Derwent Estate, nestled on the banks of the Derwent River. Built in 1820 by convicts it is one of Tasmania's truly unique tasting experiences. Sample up to 12 varietals on tasting in the Cellar Door, or visit The Shed Restaurant for lunch, featuring fresh local produce prepared to the highest standard.

3 Marco Lubiana Wines

60 Rowbottoms Road, Granton
Sat, Sun: 11am—4pm

Visit our certified organic family Estate vineyard, as we offer exclusive tours with vigneron Marco Lubiana. Vineyard tours are on the hour starting at 11AM, before a free tasting amongst the vines. Biodynamic/organic wines on tasting include our Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, be the first try our yet-to-be released Méthode Traditionnelle sparkling.

4 By Chance Wines

2/43 Pitcairn Street, Glenorchy
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—6pm

Julie and Michael from By Chance Wines will be opening their micro winery to the public for Spring in the Vines. Guests will have the opportunity to look around the cellar, hear more about the grape-growing and winemaking process, and of course, taste through some delicious Pinot noirs. And less than a 15-minute drive from Hobart, it's a great urban tasting option or convenient stop along your tasting journey.

5 Mount Direction Estate

1036 East Derwent Highway, Risdon
Sat, Sun: 10am—6pm

Mount Direction Estate is excited about joining SITV 2026 – our first 'spring' event. Our 2025 vintage will be available for tasting and for sale by the glass and bottle. We offer both Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, crafted by talented Tasmanian-based winemaker Thomas New. Chef Ryan Dolan is also providing our food on the day - think BBQ octopus with chilli & lime butter or perhaps a Nicoise Tartine! Plus a few other choices. We are looking forward to welcoming you to our beautiful property, (although still under renovation) where there is lots to see and great stories to be told.

5 Future Perfect Wines at Mount Direction Estate

1036 East Derwent Highway, Risdon
Sat, Sun: 10am—5.30pm

Pop along to Future Perfect @ Mt Direction Estate Vineyard, opening its gates for the second time specially for SITV 2026. Sitting on the bank of the Derwent just 15 minutes from town, with stunning views straight across to Mt Wellington. A unique chance to try a bunch of new releases from the stellar 2026 vintage, some special offerings from 2025 as well as the extremely limited Mt Direction wines all nestled amongst three historic buildings from the 1820's. Snacks, accoutrements and music. Have a glass, snoop around the property and buildings and stock up the cellar for the fast approaching festive season.

Supported by the Tasmanian Government
through Events Tasmania

Spring in the Vines is brought to you by

