

SPRING IN THE VINES

HUON VALLEY REGION

P1/2

1 Cathedral Rock Vineyard

675 Sandfly Road, Sandfly
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Celebrate spring at Cathedral Rock Vineyard with our selection of wines, including Shiraz, Pinot Noir, Pinot Gris, Riesling, Viognier, Rose and Sparkling. Enjoy complimentary cheese platters, live music and beautiful vineyard views while relaxing among the vines. Gather your friends and savour a memorable day of wine, food, music and good company.

2 Nandroya Vineyard

262 Sandfly Road, Margate
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

When you visit the Cellardoor at Nandroya you are welcome to enjoy a glass of wine on the verandah with views to the vineyard, kunyani/Mt Wellington and North West Bay. For the Spring in the Vines weekend there will be Nandroya's 2026 Rosé.

3 Trial Bay Estate

3096 Channel Highway, Kettering
Fri, Sat, Sun: 11am—4pm

We will be opening our doors for Spring in the Vines for the first time since October 2023. We look forward to welcoming you into our intimate cellar door. Come and taste our Premium Tassie Pinot Noir. We will be pouring for tasting our 2023 and 2024 vintages. We will also have some very small quantities of some back vintages available for purchase over the weekend. Our beautiful garden will be open to you over the weekend so bring along your picnic rug and packed lunch and enjoy some time while enjoying a glass of the good stuff. If you prefer there are many local businesses that are more than happy to provide some great take away food as an option also.

4 Yellow Point Vineyard

3755 Channel Highway Birchs Bay
Fri, Sat, Sun: 11am—5pm

Visitors can turn off the Channel Highway into our shady laneway and drive down to our secluded venue with easy access parking and our tasting room. We are offering tastings of our 2021, 2023 and 2024 Pinot Noir at this event.

5 Five Bob Farm

3866 Channel Highway, Birchs Bay
Fri, Sat, Sun: 12pm—6pm

Our cellar door will be exclusively opened across the weekend, with our wines front and centre. The Pinot Noirs have been getting plenty of attention lately, and we'll also be pouring our very first Riesling vintage – a pretty exciting bottle for us, and one we're looking forward to sharing. Saturday is our big one, with pizza and live music on the farm. We'll also have a little corner set aside for kids across all three days, so they can entertain themselves while the grown-ups concentrate on the important business of wine. We're all parents – we get it! Our 2km Art Farm Sculpture Trail winds its way through the property, our Produce Pantry will be open, and BYO picnics are very welcome for those of you who'd like to find a patch of grass and settle in for a while. The vineyard, 2km Farm Sculpture Trail and Produce Pantry will be open throughout the festival weekend. Pizza and live music will be on Saturday. BYO picnics and dogs on lead are welcome. No bookings or tickets are required.

6 Mewstone Wines

11 Flowerpot Jetty Road, Flowerpot
Fri, Sat, Sun: 11am—4pm

Make Mewstone part of your Spring in the Vines weekend and drop in for a relaxed tasting overlooking the D'Entrecasteaux Channel. Across the weekend, we'll be offering a complimentary tasting of a small selection of Mewstone and Hughes & Hughes wines, with Chardonnay and Riesling among the highlights. Fleur's oysters will also be available to enjoy alongside the wines. It's simply a great weekend to visit the vineyard, taste a few wines and enjoy the view. We'll be open from 11am to 4pm, with no ticket required for the complimentary tasting. For a longer stay or an extended tasting, bookings are recommended to lock in a table.

6 Rivulet Wines at Mewstone

11 Flowerpot Jetty Road, Flowerpot
Sat, Sun: 11am—4pm

Join award-winning Tasmanian winemaker Keira O'Brien for an intimate exploration of the island's wine regions, hosted at Mewstone Wines as part of Spring in the Vines. Across two days, Keira will present a hand-crafted selection of compelling wines that explore the many ways Tasmania can express itself in the glass. A former Young Gun of Wine trophy winner, Keira brings a winemaker's perspective to the tasting, sharing the stories and subtle differences that emerge from each place. From cool maritime vineyards to Tasmania's warmer and drier East Coast, discover how site, season and craft come together in the glass. This is a relaxed opportunity to taste alongside the winemaker, ask questions and explore some of Tasmania's most compelling wines in an intimate setting.

7 Resolution Vineyard

29 Sunny Banks Road, Middleton
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Daniel and Caroline welcome you to visit their 1-hectare family-owned and operated vineyard nestled on the rolling hills of the D'Entrecasteaux Channel. Take a seat overlooking the vines, hear their story and enjoy a tasting of their premium cool-climate Pinot Noir. The vineyard is a true labour of love, with everything from pruning to picking carefully done by hand. With sweeping views across to Bruny Island, north towards Mount Wellington and south along the Channel, there is plenty to take in while you sip. Feel free to bring your lunch and enjoy it on the deck or relax on the grass. The latest 2025 vintage is available for tasting and purchase, along with limited stocks of 2024, 2023 and 2022 vintages. Children and pets absolutely welcome, too. They can play while you chat!

8 Hartzview Vineyard

70 Dillons Road, Gardners Bay
Fri, Sat: 10am—4pm

Discover something a little different at Hartzview, with exclusive Spring in the Vines tastings across an extensive range of wines, fortifieds and liqueurs. Taste the Gold Medal-winning Spiced Apple Honey Mead, new-release Tasmanian Whisky and Estate Grown Pinot Noir Brandy, with cocktails also flowing throughout the weekend. Build your own cheese platter to enjoy alongside your tasting, then explore the property's heritage-listed fruit pickers' hut village on a self-guided discovery walk.

SPRING IN VINES

HUON VALLEY REGION

P2/2

9

Two Bud Spur Vineyard

1033a Woodbridge Hill Road, Gardners Bay
Fri, Sun: 11am—5pm, Sat: 11am—3pm

Join us at our unique straw bale winery and cellar door during Spring in the Vines and enjoy trying wine in the beautiful native garden setting. Tastings available all weekend of current release wines, including rare varieties Gamay and Gewurztraminer alongside our Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. We'll also be releasing our 2025 Gamay Nouveau for Spring in the Vines, so come along and be among the first to try the new vintage. This year we are celebrating 20 years of our custodianship of Two Bud Spur and want to share our achievements with you! This special event (Sat 3-5pm), hosted in our winery, will explore vintages of our Pinot Noir across two decades, allow you to understand how the climate in various years has influenced the wines, and how they have evolved with careful aging. Places are limited and bookings are essential.

10

Elsewhere Vineyard

584 Silver Hill Road, Glaziers Bay
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Welcome to our family friendly vineyard, with grounds that are designed to entice you to bring lunch or a platter, and spend time with family and friends. Grab one of the many picnic tables and some of our wines and enjoy the sunshine. On offer will be free tastings, and incredible discounts of between 30 and 50% on our Pinot Noir, Chardonnay or Riesling, but only for the wine weekend!

11

Collado Way Wines

80 Dillons Hill Road, Glaziers Bay
Fri: 12—5pm, Sat, Sun: 11am—5pm

Collado Way Wines is a new wine brand based in the Huon Valley, making small batches of wine from carefully selected sites across Tasmania. We don't have a cellar door or winery of our own yet, making this our first opportunity to invite people to meet us and taste what we've been making over the past season. Between us, we have more than 20 years of winemaking experience, having worked across five continents, and we have spent the last 9 years in the Huon Valley. It was here that we decided to put down roots and focus on the incredible quality and potential of Tasmania's cool climate wines. Once a relaxed spring afternoon of wine, food, music and the Huon Valley community. Noa Masel will be serving delicious Mediterranean style small plates to enjoy alongside the wines.

12

Chatto

68 Dillons Hill Road Glaziers Bay
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—4pm

Specialising in Pinot Noir, Chatto welcomes you to experience a tasting of our current releases (Including our first ever Pinot Rose!) at our winery in Glaziers Bay. Jim is running two vertical tastings looking at the history of Isle Vineyard (limited seats, Friday and Saturday only). Come relax and check out stunning botanical art by Deborah Wace and South American inspired food on offer from our good friends Alvaro and Laura (Lunch in the Andes). BYO Picnic also welcome as are children and fur friends.

Supported by the Tasmanian Government through Events Tasmania

Spring in the Vines
is brought to you by

13

Vini Fusilli

40 Dillons Hill Road, Glaziers Bay
Fri, Sat, Sun: 11am—4pm

We welcome you to come and visit an extremely special wine growing site that is not ever open to the public. Our tiny vineyard planted by Eric and Jette Phillips in 1999 surrounds our family home on a hill above the Huon river in Glaziers Bay. We will be releasing our 2025 Pinot Nero organically grown, made and bottled on site. Additionally we will have some wines produced from fruit we purchase from sites around southern Tasmania. These include a Sparkling, Riesling, Syrah and a Red/White blend. Our 2026 Garden cider, produced from our orchard as well as other sites around the Huon will also be available. There will also be a few bottles available from back vintages including our first in 2021. A few other great producers on our street who will also be open!

14

Heriots Point Vineyard

3883 Huon Highway, Castle Forbes Bay
Fri, Sat, Sun: 11am—5pm

Experience curated cellar aged Pinot and the newly released 2023 Sparkling wine in a unique Huon riverside landscape. See the 35 year old vines that are the foundations of stunning Heriots Point wines and book early for Huon River cruises.

15

Henskens Rankin of Tasmania

2 Louisa Street, Ranelagh
Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—4pm

Henskens Rankin focus on ultra-premium, small batch, traditional method sparkling wines that command $100+. Founded in 2010 by Frieda Henskens & David Rankin, who strictly reject mass production. These award-winning cuvees define modern luxury. Meet the makers & see why we refuse to take short-cuts. Hosted at The Kiln (part of The Kiln Collective) 12 Louisa St, Ranelagh in a beautifully restored, heritage listed hop kiln. Visitors can experience a curated Wine & Cheese Dining experience featuring Bruny Island Cheese & Beer Co Cheese (their beer is also on tap). We will be pouring our new release 2018 Brut Rose and 2016 Vintage Brut along with 96 point 2019 Blanc de Blancs. Spacious lawn to relax enjoy the wine, cheese and ambience.

16

Frankcomb

140 Glen Road, Huonville
Fri: 12—5pm, Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

We are opening our property exclusively for Spring in the Vines where guests can experience free tastings with us of our first and current release, award winning wines. Stay for a glass, a bottle, and have a chat and enjoy the view from our historic farm setting. Alongside the wine, we are offering home grown lamb chops off the barbeque to tide you over between vineyard visits, or feel free to bring a picnic along. We are lucky to have Lindsey Wherrett ceramics studio located in our old hop kiln which Lindsey will have open especially for the weekend. It will be a casual drop in, time out on the farm with a chance to discover new Huon Valley wines in a historic setting.

17

Kate Hill Wines

21 Dowlings Road, Huonville
Fri: 11am—4pm, Sat, Sun: 11am—5pm

Immerse yourself in exceptional cool-climate wines from the stunning Huon Valley. Join us at our intimate cellar door for a wine tasting, or enjoy a glass or a bottle with your friends in our gardens, surrounded by the winery, with stunning valley views of Sleeping Beauty. We are pairing our best pours with woodfired pizzas, local tasting platters and live music!

