

SOUTHERN TASMANIA OPEN VINEYARDS

ON THE DERWENT

1 Invercarron Wines
 1329 Elderslie Road, Broadmarsh
 Sat, Sun: 11am—4pm

Perched high above Tasmania's Jordan Valley, Invercarron is a fully Tasmanian owned, family-run, single-site vineyard where every bottle is traceable back to the vine in Broadmarsh. Taste our full range - Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Gris and Rosé - and be among the first to discover our newly unveiled variety. Settle in with our famous Invercarron lamb pizzas and local cheese platters, then relax into a long, leisurely afternoon at The Picker's Hut. With live music, vineyard views, roaming sheep and wide-open Tasmanian skies, honestly, it's a very good way to spend the weekend!

2 Derwent Estate Wines
 329 Lyell Hwy, Granton
 Fri, Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Visit our 1820 Convict built Cellar Door overlooking the beautiful Derwent River. We have 12 wines on tasting in our Cellar door and Cheese Plates, our Shed Restaurant is also open all Southern Open Vineyards Weekend! Tasting are free of charge for Southern Open Vineyards Weekend customers!

3 Viridian Wines
 87 Rowbottoms Road, Granton
 Sat, Sun: 11am—5pm

Our small family run working vineyard welcomes visitors to share our ethos of sustainable viticulture; to enjoy vertical tastings of past vintages (Chardonnay, Riesling and Pinot Noir) from 2008-2020, and try our special launch OVV release 2015 LD Blanc de blancs and for natural wine aficionados, a 2012 Brut Nature (no dosage, no filtering or fining, no preservatives). Our alcohol free Verjuice will also be available for tasting. As wine tastes better with food and friends we suggest you bring your favorite friends (and nibbles) along to taste.

4 Quiet Mutiny
 at Laurel Bank Wines
 130 Black Snake Rd, Granton
 Fri: 1pm—5pm Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Join Greer and Paul from Quiet Mutiny for the Open Vineyard Weekend, hosted on our family property, Laurel Bank, nestled in the picturesque Derwent Valley. We're thrilled to offer tastings of our current Riesling, Rose, Pinot Noir, and Syrah. It's the perfect opportunity to discover the essence of our wines and stock up on rare back vintages and magnums. We can't wait to share our wines and our story with you in this stunning setting!

Supported by the Tasmanian Government
 through Events Tasmania

This event is brought to you by

4 Laurel Bank Wines
 130 Black Snake Road, Granton
 Fri: 1pm—5pm Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Come join us for the one weekend each year when we open our doors to the public, inviting you to explore our wines and discover our stories. We've put away the barrels and tractors to make room for you in our shed, where you can taste our current Riesling, Sauvignon Blanc, and Pinot Noir, along with the last few bottles of our coveted Cabernet Sauvignon. Kerry also plans to unearth a hidden gem from the cellar for those who appreciate rare, vintage wines. And, of course, the view over the Derwent Valley is absolutely spectacular! We can't wait to welcome you.

5 By Chance Wines
 2/43 Pitcairn Street, Glenorchy
 Fri: 10am—7pm Sat, Sun: 10am—5pm

Minutes from Hobart, By Chance Wines offers an urban tasting option. The venue is normally not open to the public, but during SOVW, patrons will have an opportunity to explore the warehouse, chat to the vignerons, learn about the process, and taste through a variety of wines in a relaxed environment.

6 Mount Direction Estate
 1036 East Derwent Highway, Risdon
 Sat, Sun: 10am—4.30pm

Mount Direction Estate is a 1824 heritage-listed property, now with a vineyard, located on the River Derwent. We will be launching our 2025 Chardonnay and Pinot Noir at SOVW so come and join us on the deck for a tasting of our very first vintage. The property is being renovated however the cottage, loft, bakery and stables are done. Come for a sticky beak and see what we have been up to for the past few years. Our renovation is considered, respecting the heritage fabric but with a modern twist, due to be completed in early 2027. Our vines are looking great and we are already excited for our next vintage, but first things first- let's launch 2025 and have a fun weekend, with food available and nibbles with your tasting.

6 Future Perfect Wines
 at Mount Direction Estate
 1036 East Derwent Highway, Risdon
 Sat, Sun: 10am—4.30pm

Nestled on the muddy banks of the Derwent River, Future Perfect Wines is joining Mount Direction Estate for SOVW 2026 (two for the price of one!). Showcasing a bunch of new release wines from 2025, accompanied by complimentary accoutrements. More substantial sustenance is also available for purchase. This is the first time the estate had been open to the public since establishing the vineyard and renovations of the historic buildings on site. All with vistas encompassing the anomalies of the lower Derwent – montaine, maritime and industry. Tastings are FOC.

Information correct at the time of publication (10 February 2026). Program details may change. Please refer to our website for the most up-to-date information.

LEGEND

-  Food available
-  Child friendly
-  Snacks available
-  Music performance
-  Ticketed/special event
-  Open all year around
-  Open specifically for this
-  Special Southern Open Vineyards Weekend release
-  Pet friendly
-  Art